Rom Rage

If you click on this photo of Christian, you'll see he is sporting what looks like a poorly-placed Bindi dot (with accompanying bump) right on the top of his forehead - a victim of "Rom Rage".

What is "Rom Rage", you ask??? Well lets just say that interior design is not for sissies. He was kindly helping Rom Lee install a piece at the Designer Showcase hosted by Glenn Richards (check out my blog entry here for more details...) when he was attacked, yes attacked by falling hardware and tumbling ladders. Since Rom is so easy-going, we are blaming him for the whole ordeal.

Who We Are

Robin Daly and Christian Ursino combine their individual talents together to create the Design Files.

Robin: I'm a 3rd generation co-owner of my family business, Daly's Paint & Decorating. I love to use my education in interior design and combine it with the practical everyday knowledge I've gained by helping people on a daily basis to decorate their homes (I've been at it since before I could drive!). I am also involved with C2 Paint - you can find me chatting about everything from new color names to exploring new marketplaces!

Christian: I use my 25+ years of experience in all aspects of interior design; manufacturing, wholesale, retail and decor. My educational background in psychology and business comes into play when balancing client needs and translating them into comfortable, attractive living spaces. I am available for consultations and commissions in the greater Seattle area.
